Contributions and Personal Accomplishments to the Breed:

I have had two articles published in The Bulldogger. While conducting my veterinary practice I have always offered assistance to those having problems and that has continued while I was employed by USDA and into my retirement years. My wife Nancy has been a great asset to me in all of my endeavors while in practice and raising and showing dogs. We have the honor of having bred three BCA Hall of Fame dogs. We are excited that our daughter Stacey has the same devoted interest in dogs that Nancy and I have maintained over the years.
