Contributions and Personal Accomplishments to the Breed:

As I became more knowledgeable of the breed I tried to help the newcomer by aiding in choosing dogs, showing procedure and raising puppies.

I never hesitated to sell a good dog to a worthy novice. The joy came when he put his first point on that dog & finished it to its championship.

The "Bulldogger" has received my support since its inception. I am on the Gallery of winners committee and have given items and sat at auction table in years past.

Due to my husband's illness, I am presently unable to be as active as I would like
