Contributions and Personal Accomplishments to the Breed:

Well, as a long time member I'd like to think the jobs I've held have bettered the breed in some way. I know it is important to have worker Bee's and I'm pretty sure that I qualify in that category. I dearly love the breed and always look forward to seeing all my bulldog friends over the years. I have never been a big time breeder, always have small numbers of dogs at home, but want them all to be loved and spoiled, which mine certainly are! Have had some good ones who won numbers of specialties over the years including some national weekends. Try to breed only for quality and never to just sell pups. Still dream of that some day perfect one who might win it all!
